Goalscorer and HBL in brief: match day with close runs

There had been close runs at yesterday's German Handball Bundesliga matches. Dalibor Doder could have bring home the win in the match of GWD Minden playing against TBV Lemgo but the Swedish born performer failed within the very dying seconds of the match at the Lemgo goalkeeper hence Fabian van Olphen was able to score into an empty goal of GWD Minden to end the match with 26:26 (12:9). And the match between HC Erlangen and TuS N-Lübbecke ended up with sharing points. The competition between Frisch Auf! Göppingen facing the SC Magdeburg came to an end of a one-goal advantage for the SC Magdeburg: " We made a lot of mistakes today, but we fought! Those two points were very important for us, " Michael Damgaard said after his goal that turned the match into a win. Here are all nine matches of the past week in brief:
